THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1897.

The is something wrong with the Dispensary law. Any statute susceptible to two opposite constructions is lame and impotent, and amendments are very much in order.—Columbia Register.

Hon. John L. McLaurin can be the next Governor of South Carolina if he wants to. He is growing in popularity steadily, and from a beginning of small promise he has risen to the top of the political heap in this State.—Sumter Watchman and Southron.

Senator Earle may be somewhat new, but he is right. He is entitled to a position on a senate committee and there are members of the house who are being deprived of the same constitutional privilege.—Washington Post.

The Rev. W. H. Weaver, pastor of the U. B. church, Dillsburg, Pa., recognizes the value of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and does not hesitate to tell others about it. "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," he says, "and find it an excellent medicine for colds, coughs and hoarseness." So does everyone who gives it a trial. Sold by Dr. W. L. Wallace, druggist.

The late famous Joe McCullough of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, said that "the best newspaper man was the fellow who knew where hell would break loose next." We are not particularly ambitious of this distinction, but under the teachings and practices of some judge and peace officers of South Carolina in these days, we may safely say that hell will continue to break loose in the unfortunate Palmetto State—and in a very continuous and livel manner.—Edgefield Chronicle.

Two years ago E. J. Warren, a druggist at Pleasant Brook, N. Y., bought a small supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sums up the result as follows: "At that time the goods were unknown in this section; to-day Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a household word." It is the same in hundreds of communities. Wherever the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy becomes known the people will have nothing else. For sale by Dr. W. L. Wallace, druggist.

Old Samps Pope must have been born under an unlucky star. He seems to be doomed to disappointment in getting an office, even under the chaperonage of the sable George Washington Murry. Samps, it will be remembered, was the man who put into the Democratic Constitution that clause which forbids negroes from participating in our primaries, and now he is like two beans in a hull with Murry, the negro agitator.—Manning Times.

Mrs. A. Inveen, residing at 729 Henry St., Alton Ill., suffered with sciatic rheumatism for over eight months. She doctored for it nearly the whole of this time, using various remedies recommended by friends, and was treated by the physicians, but received no relief. She then used one and a half bottles of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which effected a complete cure. This is published at her request, as she wants others similarly afflicted to know what cured her. The 25 cent sizes for sale by Dr. W. L. Wallace, druggist.

Governor Ellerbe is either growing fat on Columbia water and air or is enjoying official life so much that his health is better than for years. He announced as his sole piece of news yesterday that "he had taken on twelve pounds of fat." Governor Ellerbe's friends will be delighted to hear that official life agrees with him so thoroughly. Office is something nearly every average citizen hankers for, but it is not on account of the "fat of the flesh" they are after, but the other sort of "fat" they can make out of it.—Columbia Register.

Americans are the most inventive people on earth. To them have been issued nearly 600,000 patents, or more than one-third of all the patents issued in the world. No discovery of modern years has been of greater benefit to mankind than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, or has done more to relieve pain and suffering. J. W. Vaughn, of Oakton, Ky., says: "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for several years, and it to be the best medicine I ever used for cramps in the stomach and bowels. For sale by Dr. W. L. Wallace, Druggist.

Every citizen of the country who can appreciate high courage and manliness will be glad that the venerable Wade Hampton is recovering from his severe illness. General Hampton was born in Charleston, S. C., March 28, 1818, and is therefore in the 80th year of his age. He has led an active and wearing career of politics and war for nearly or quite fifty years. His record is one of the cleanest, and he has been among the most useful men in our public life. Gen. Hampton is now railroad commissioner of the United States, in which office he succeeded the late Confederate Gen. Joseph E. Johnston.—Chattanooga Times.

Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment is unequalled for Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Bone Nipples, Chapped Hands, Itching Piles, Burns, Frost Bites, Chronic Sore Eyes and Granulated Eye Lids. For sale by druggists at 25 cents per box.

TO WOMEN OWNERS.
For putting a home in a fine healthy condition try Dr. Cab's Condition Powder. They tone up the system, aid digestion, cure loss of appetite, relieve constipation, correct kidney disorders and destroy worms, giving new life to an old or over-worked home. 25 cents per package. For sale by druggists.
